K.Carter Announces Live Show to Benefit Local Food Pantry, Launches New Website

Dayton, OH -- Local hip hop artist K.Carter has officially announced his latest performance, #NBX Live at the Black Box Theater at 7pm on September 18, 2016. For the show, Carter has partnered with Catholic Social Services of the Miami Valley (CSSMV) and plans to include a food drive to raise awareness of the organization and benefit their food pantry operation. Attendees who bring a non-perishable food item will pay only $5, rather than the $10 dollar ticket price for entry into the show.

"They are right around the corner from where I grew up," said Carter, of CSSMV's West Dayton location. "I know they do good work - the kind of work that impacts people from my old neighborhood."

The Choice Food Pantry, one of over a dozen initiatives by Catholic Social Services, is the busiest food-distribution pantry in the Greater Dayton area. Annually, the pantry assists over 18,000 adults and children. Major client groups include working poor, seniors, transitional welfare recipients, single high-needs individuals, and the temporarily unemployed. Forty percent who benefit from the food program are children.

As a Dayton native who grew up on the west side of Dayton, Carter says organizations like Catholic Social Services are a critical resource to people who want to succeed.

"My music, and my philosophy - what I call the #NBX movement - are about being able to succeed, pursue happiness, and be yourself, wherever you are, no matter who you are, no matter your circumstance," said Carter. "The reality of the matter is some people just need a hand up on their journey to success, and that's why I want my show to highlight the kind of work Catholic Social Services does."

In addition to live performances by K.Carter from his Revenge of the Nerd Album and new songs from his upcoming album, (R)hythm (A)nd (P)oetry Music, #NBX Live will feature the group the Fy'ah Stah'tahs, Yvette "Diva" Williams, and Valerie Brown.

Announcement of the show also coincides with the launch of the artist's new website, www.thekcarter.com.

"I'm pumped to announce my new site and the show at the same time," Carter said. "There's a lot of momentum behind the arts scene in Dayton, and I'm glad to be a part of it, and now my fans have a one-stop shop for my music and what's happening with the #NBX movement."
